PRESS RELEASE

PUBLIC SERVICE DAY CELEBRATIONS

The United Nations General Assembly, in its resolution 57/277, designated 23 June as a date on which member states are encouraged to stage special events to highlight the contribution of the public service in the development process. The celebration will be held on the 13th and 14th June 2013 in Gaborone. The theme for this year's celebration is "E-government: The key to Effective and Efficient Service Delivery".

The first day of the celebrations will be characterized by the Public Service Convention that will showcase creativity and innovation to improve service delivery. The second day will start with a Carnival March congregating at a central point where stall exhibitions, Sport activities and Arts Performances by Public Service employees will take place. The event will culminate in the Ministry for Presidential Affairs and Public Administration (MOPAPA) Awards ceremony in the evening by the Hon. Minister for Presidential Affairs and Public Administration.

Members of the public are invited to join in this celebration. For more information kindly contact Mr. Joseph F. Moroka at 3622634 or 3622787, and on e-mail: jfmoroka@gov.bw; Ms Akanyang Mmoi at 3622651 or 3622600, 71394401 and on e-mail address: ammoi@gov.bw.
